FOR CHANGE

FASHIONS AND TRENDS

Fashions are born and they die too quickly for anyone to learn to love them.

One gets so bored...

Real mature freshmen!

Let's see those hairy legs

Very independent of fashion

Spirit with Shades

A MOMENT IN TIME

Small sands the mountains, moments make the year.

What a Bargain!

Those glittering moments that the spirit
lends.

Hmm . . . hmm Good!

Remember all the best of our past moments and forget the rest.

LOOKING GOOD: GETTING BETTER

When the journey is over, there will be time enough to sleep.

Our journey has just begun

The only discipline that lasts is self-discipline.

Roaring to the top

Here's looking at you!!

Look what we've got

Deeper than you think!

Putting our best foot forward

You're not going to believe this, but . . .

"THE BEST YEARS OF YOUR LIFE . . ."

The Dream, alone, is of interest. What is life with out a Dream?

Out sitting in her field.

Smile Pretty!

Three of a kind.

We are the music makers,
We are the dreamers of Dreams.

FACES IN THE CROWD

God has given you one face.
Do not make yourself another.

Why me?

A team that has character doesn't need stimulation.

Angry men win
football games.

Looks to me like you
are spending too much time on one subject.

GETTING THERE IS HALF THE FUN

Travel Trouble Music Art
A kiss A frock A rhyme —
I never said they feed my heart
but still they pass the time.

There is nothing more fun than a man.

It is more fun to punt than to be punted.

SENIORS

THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1989

Dedicate the 1989 REED

to

MR. THOMAS CONRAD

Assistant Principal, Athletic Director, and Friend

Learning is like a great house that requires a great charge to keep it in constant repair. Sammuel Butler

Life is to be fortified by many friendships. To love and to be loved is the greatest happiness of existence. Sidney Smith

One man practicing sportsmanship is far better than a hundred teaching it. Knate Rockne

Mr. Tom Conrad joined the Marshwood Staff upon the untimely death of the much beloved Mr. Linwood Sadler, truly large shoes to fill. His dedication, sense of fair play, courtesy, and genuine concern for the welfare of Marshwood High and students from all walks of life have won him a position of respect and affection. We appreciate all that he has given us during the past four years.

IN MEMORIAM

Kathleen Christie 1970-1986

With your cheerful smile, you made me laugh;
I still look back upon the days we spent together
and those days we passed in the hallways.
Though you moved here late during our freshman year,
I will always remember your kindness, your love
for band, and the special friendship you gave to me.

Lynda Clayton

People either think upon a person with good, warm feelings, or sometimes with feelings of disgust and anger. It seems to me that when a person dies, everyone feels sorrow and remembers all the experiences with that person, especially the pleasurable ones.

This is often far different from the way a person would feel when seeing a friend in school every day. I wish people would look at others, truly look at others, without judgements and with pure feelings, because things would seem very different and new. A person cannot go back and repair friendships or relive moments.

Sonya R. Laska

When I look at death, I look at it in the way of growing old and getting gray hair. Why is it that some people think death is happiness? Is it because they don't want to deal with life? Or is it because they're reaching out asking for someone? Most of the time this person doesn't want to die, and sometimes the person has thought about it for so long that's what he really wants. It's sad to lose a pet hamster or a dog, but to lose someone close to you, is to lose a part of yourself. Why is it only the good die young?

We love you, Shayne Freeman
Chris Wolcott

Scott Wilkinson

Love is unconditional; it is given of freely. Most of us need not give any thought as to how we are going to be loved each and every day. To choose death over life, one must know an aloneness which seems hard to comprehend. For one person to reach out with her love and then fail is not easy to deal with. I've since rid myself of the guilt and replaced it with a greater understanding and a deeper love for life.

You taught me how to love and to enjoy what the outdoors has to offer. You will always be a part of me

I love you, Shayne Freeman

Philosophy: In the beginning, good overpowered the evils of all man's sins. But in time our nations grew weak, and our cities fell to slums while evil was so strong. In the dusts of hell are the blackest of hates, for he who fears, fear awaits you. Now many, many lifetimes later they've destroyed beaten down, only a corpses of levels, ashes of dreams and bloodstained streets. It has been written that those who have the youth have the future. So come now children of the beast be strong and shout at the . . . !!!

Ambition: To party till' the day I die!

Memories: Awesome parties!

A group of Marshwood High cheerleaders attended a camp this summer sponsored by the national Cheerleaders Association. The group consisted of thirteen girls in various grades. They won the award of excellence at the conclusion of camp, and were invited to attend the national competition in Dallas during December.

They practiced long and hard until the day finally arrived for them to leave. Marshwood was not one of the finalists, but they did have a lot of fun. They stayed in the same hotel as the Celtics, saw a bit of Dallas, and brought back a lot of great ideas which helped them do so well locally. They came in first at the Western Competition, second at Regionals, and third in the State. Congratulations.
